

Aims of Arts in Redditch

Acting as an umbrella body for arts organisations and creative individuals, Arts in Redditch will work to enable increased access to, and participation in, all forms of creative activity in Redditch and the surrounding area.

Arts in Redditch will use its influence, capacity and resources to advance public understanding and appreciation of the arts, including the allocation of grants and other funding to support new and existing arts initiatives.

As part of its remit, Arts in Redditch will promote opportunities and facilities for recreation or other leisure time activities, for the benefit of all individuals and groups in the area, with the object of improving the health and well-being of those people.

BECOMING A MEMBER OF ARTS IN REDDITCH (AIR)

Our constitution provides for a voting membership with the power to elect additional trustees, and take other important decisions.

Corporate Membership of AIR

Any organisation, based in or working in Redditch or its immediate surroundings, and engaged primarily in not-for-profit arts activities, can join as a corporate member, carrying one vote in any decision by the membership. At only £12 per annum, this gives you a voice and a vote where it counts.

Individual Membership of AIR

Any individual, living or working in Redditch or its immediate surroundings or otherwise involved in or interested in arts activities in the area, can join as an individual member, carrying one vote in any decision by the membership. At only £6 per annum, this gives you a voice and a vote where it counts.

Friends of AIR (non-voting)

Anyone who wishes to be kept informed, by e-mail, about what we are doing and planning, can sign up as a Friend. There is no charge for this.
